Declarative, Interrogative and Exclamatory Sentences

Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

- A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  We played games all night long.

- An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  What game do you want to play?

- An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  I want to play red rover!

1) What is your favorite game?

2) My favorite game is Hide and Seek.

3) We play it all the time.

4) How long was your longest game?

5) One time my friend and I played for 2 hours!

6) We were really tired afterwards.

7) Do you think you could play that long?

8) I also like to play freeze tag!

9) Have you ever played freeze tag?

10) Do you like running away or chasing better?

11) I like both of them.

12) Maybe someday we'll get to play freeze tag together.

13) Doesn't that sound like fun?

14) How many people do you usually get to play?

15) I like to get as many people to play as I can.

Answers

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

11.

12.

13.

14.

15.

www.CommonCoreSheets.com
Declarative, Interrogative and Exclamatory Sentences

Name: ____________________________  Answer Key

1. Interrogative
2. Declarative
3. Declarative
4. Interrogative
5. Exclamatory
6. Declarative
7. Interrogative
8. Exclamatory
9. Interrogative
10. Interrogative
11. Declarative
12. Declarative
13. Interrogative
14. Interrogative
15. Declarative

Remember:

• A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)
  We played games all night long.
• An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)
  What game do you want to play?
• An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)
  I want to play red rover!

1) What is your favorite game?
2) My favorite game is Hide and Seek.
3) We play it all the time.
4) How long was your longest game?
5) One time my friend and I played for 2 hours!
6) We were really tired afterwards.
7) Do you think you could play that long?
8) I also like to play freeze tag!
9) Have you ever played freeze tag?
10) Do you like running away or chasing better?
11) I like both of them.
12) Maybe someday we'll get to play freeze tag together.
13) Doesn't that sound like fun?
14) How many people do you usually get to play?
15) I like to get as many people to play as I can.
Declarative, Interrogative and Exclamatory Sentences

Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

- A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period ( ).
  - We played games all night long.
- An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)
  - What game do you want to play?
- An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!).
  - I want to play red rover!

1) Which fair ride do you want to go on first?
2) I think we should go on the Ferris Wheel first.
3) We can see all the different rides from up top.
4) How high up do you think we'll be?
5) I saw a fun house when we were up there.
6) Do you think they'll have silly mirrors?
7) Which way was it?
8) I think it was close to the bumper cars.
9) Lets stop and get some cotton candy first!
10) What flavor do you want?
11) Should we get a drink too?
12) The fun house takes three tickets.
13) How many more tickets do we have?
14) Should we buy some more first?
15) We should come back tomorrow!
Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

• A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  We played games all night long.

• An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  What game do you want to play?

• An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  I want to play red rover!

1) Which fair ride do you want to go on first?

2) I think we should go on the Ferris Wheel first.

3) We can see all the different rides from up top.

4) How high up do you think we'll be?

5) I saw a fun house when we were up there.

6) Do you think they'll have silly mirrors?

7) Which way was it?

8) I think it was close to the bumper cars.

9) Lets stop and get some cotton candy first!

10) What flavor do you want?

11) Should we get a drink too?

12) The fun house takes three tickets.

13) How many more tickets do we have?

14) Should we buy some more first?

15) We should come back tomorrow!

Answers

1. Interrogative
2. Declarative
3. Declarative
4. Interrogative
5. Declarative
6. Interrogative
7. Interrogative
8. Declarative
9. Exclamatory
10. Interrogative
11. Interrogative
12. Declarative
13. Interrogative
14. Interrogative
15. Exclamatory
Declarative, Interrogative and Exclamatory Sentences

Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

• A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  We played games all night long.

• An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  What game do you want to play?

• An exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  I want to play red rover!

1) What should I buy Sarah for her birthday?

2) I wonder if she already has a doll house?

3) Maybe I should look in the sports section.

4) How about getting her a pogo stick?

5) She doesn't really have any room to use it though.

6) Maybe she wants a new movie?

7) Wow, these movies are way too expensive!

8) I only have ten dollars to spend.

9) I wonder what flavor candy she likes?

10) I know she likes chocolate the best.

11) Maybe I should keep looking.

12) I know what I should get her!

13) Do they have any gift cards here?

14) Now she'll be able to get anything she wants!

15) Now which birthday card do I get her?
Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

• A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (•).

  We played games all night long.

• An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?).

  What game do you want to play?

• An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!).

  I want to play red rover!

1) What should I buy Sarah for her birthday?

2) I wonder if she already has a doll house?

3) Maybe I should look in the sports section.

4) How about getting her a pogo stick?

5) She doesn't really have any room to use it though.

6) Maybe she wants a new movie?

7) Wow, these movies are way too expensive!

8) I only have ten dollars to spend.

9) I wonder what flavor candy she likes?

10) I know she likes chocolate the best.

11) Maybe I should keep looking.

12) I know what I should get her!

13) Do they have any gift cards here?

14) Now she'll be able to get anything she wants!

15) Now which birthday card do I get her?
Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

- A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  We played games all night long.

- An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  What game do you want to play?

- An exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  I want to play red rover!

1) How many more days until summer vacation?

2) We’re going to the Grand Canyon!

3) We’re going to take a donkey ride to the bottom.

4) Do the donkeys get lost going down?

5) After the Grand Canyon we’re going to visit my grandma.

6) She has over 100 acres of land!

7) I bet it takes forever to mow it.

8) Last year I got lost while exploring it!

9) At night the entire forest glows with lightning bugs.

10) Do you think Grandma will let me stay up late and catch some?

11) I sure hope so!

12) After grandma’s house we’re coming back home.

13) The worst part is the how boring the drive gets!

14) I used to sing songs but dad made me stop.

15) I guess he just didn’t like my singing, huh?
Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period().

> We played games all night long.

An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark(?).

> What game do you want to play?

An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point(!).

> I want to play red rover!

1) How many more days until summer vacation?

2) We’re going to the Grand Canyon!

3) We’re going to take a donkey ride to the bottom.

4) Do the donkeys get lost going down?

5) After the Grand Canyon we’re going to visit my grandma.

6) She has over 100 acres of land!

7) I bet it takes forever to mow it.

8) Last year I got lost while exploring it!

9) At night the entire forest glows with lightning bugs.

10) Do you think Grandma will let me stay up late and catch some?

11) I sure hope so!

12) After grandma’s house we’re coming back home.

13) The worst part is the how boring the drive gets!

14) I used to sing songs but dad made me stop.

15) I guess he just didn’t like my singing, huh?
Declarative, Interrogative and Exclamatory Sentences

Determine if each sentence is declarative, interrogative or exclamatory.

- A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  We played games all night long.

- An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  What game do you want to play?

- An Exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  I want to play red rover!

1) Did you know that Mario wasn’t originally named Mario?

2) That’s right, his name used to be ‘Jump Man’.

3) What a silly name!

4) Can you guess what game character was originally going to be a rabbit?

5) He’s a character that runs really fast.

6) He also collects rings and saves animals.

7) Do you give up?

8) It’s Sonic the hedgehog!

9) Did you know that even food can help create characters?

10) Just ask some designers that were looking at a pizza.

11) When they saw a missing piece they said it looked kind of like a mouth.

12) Do you know what character they created?

13) He was one of the first video game characters ever!

14) Yep, that pizza eventually became Pac-Man.

15) Isn’t it funny how people get their ideas?
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Answers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Exclamatory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>Exclamatory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13</td>
<td>Exclamatory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14</td>
<td>Declarative</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>Interrogative</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1) Did you know that Mario wasn’t originally named Mario?
2) That’s right, his name used to be ‘Jump Man’.
3) What a silly name!
4) Can you guess what game character was originally going to be a rabbit?
5) He’s a character that runs really fast.
6) He also collects rings and saves animals.
7) Do you give up?
8) It’s Sonic the hedgehog!
9) Did you know that even food can help create characters?
10) Just ask some designers that were looking at a pizza.
11) When they saw a missing piece they said it looked kind of like a mouth.
12) Do you know what character they created?
13) He was one of the first video game characters ever!
14) Yep, that pizza eventually became Pac-Man.
15) Isn’t it funny how people get their ideas?

- A declarative sentence makes a statement and ends with a period (.)

  \[ \text{We played games all night long.} \]

- An interrogative sentence asks a question and ends with a question mark (?)

  \[ \text{What game do you want to play?} \]

- An exclamatory sentence shows strong emotion and ends with an exclamation point (!)

  \[ \text{I want to play red rover!} \]