Solve each problem.

1) A teacher had twenty students in her classes. If each student completed ninety-three problems, how many problems would she have to grade?

1. _____

2) Kaleb was placing his spare change into stacks. Each stack had thirty-two coins. If he had ninety-four stacks, how many coins did he have all together?

2. _____

3. _____

3) There are eighty-seven pieces of popcorn in a small bag. If a movie theater sells fifty-four small bags, how many pieces of popcorn would they have sold?

4. _____

5. _____

4) At the carnival there are eighty-two students selling tickets. If each student sells ninety-five tickets, how many tickets would be sold all together?

6. _____

5) A movie theater has forty-one rows of seats. If each row has seventy-six seats in it, how many seats does the theater have total?

7. _____

8. _____

6) On her MP3 player, Isabel had eighty-four different singers with twenty-one songs from each singer. How many songs did Isabel have total?

9. _____

10. _____

7) Victor's mother had sixty-two photo albums with twenty-two pictures in each album. How many pictures did his mother have total?

11. _____

8) A bouquet of flowers had fifty-three daisies in it. If a florist had sixty-six bouquets, how many daisies did they have total?

12. _____

9) There are twenty-two plates in a box. If a restaurant bought forty-five boxes, how many plates would they have total?

10) If an industrial machine could make fifty-six erasers in a second, how many erasers would it have made in eighty-six seconds?

11) A library checks out fifty-six books each day. How many books would they have checked out after thirty-six days?

12) At a school fundraiser the students sold eleven boxes of candy with each box having seventy-eight pieces inside of it. How many pieces of candy did they sell total?

1-10	92	83	75	67	58	50	42	33	25	17
11-12	8	0

Solve each problem.

Answers

1. __1,860__

2. __3,008__

3. __4,698__

4. __7,790__

5. __3,116__

6. __1,764__

7. __1,364__

8. __3,498__

9. __990__

10. __4,816__

11. __2,016__

12. __858__

1) A teacher had twenty students in her classes. If each student completed ninety-three problems, how many problems would she have to grade?

2) Kaleb was placing his spare change into stacks. Each stack had thirty-two coins. If he had ninety-four stacks, how many coins did he have all together?

3) There are eighty-seven pieces of popcorn in a small bag. If a movie theater sells fifty-four small bags, how many pieces of popcorn would they have sold?

4) At the carnival there are eighty-two students selling tickets. If each student sells ninety-five tickets, how many tickets would be sold all together?

5) A movie theater has forty-one rows of seats. If each row has seventy-six seats in it, how many seats does the theater have total?

6) On her MP3 player, Isabel had eighty-four different singers with twenty-one songs from each singer. How many songs did Isabel have total?

7) Victor's mother had sixty-two photo albums with twenty-two pictures in each album. How many pictures did his mother have total?

8) A bouquet of flowers had fifty-three daisies in it. If a florist had sixty-six bouquets, how many daisies did they have total?

9) There are twenty-two plates in a box. If a restaurant bought forty-five boxes, how many plates would they have total?

10) If an industrial machine could make fifty-six erasers in a second, how many erasers would it have made in eighty-six seconds?

11) A library checks out fifty-six books each day. How many books would they have checked out after thirty-six days?

12) At a school fundraiser the students sold eleven boxes of candy with each box having seventy-eight pieces inside of it. How many pieces of candy did they sell total?

1-10	92	83	75	67	58	50	42	33	25	17
11-12	8	0								